

FIELD CONSERVATION

U.S. HUMANE SOCIETY GREENWOOD PRESERVE & WILDLIFE SANCTUARY
Lakeview, Oregon

- Land planning and acquisition strategy
- Expansion of flagship sanctuary from 2000 to 10,000 acres
- GIS mapping and analysis
- Identified best opportunities to enhance habitat diversity and connectivity
- Habitat for 310 birds species & 76 mammal species ranging from Mountain Lion to Pgymy rabbit

RIO CONDOR
Tierra Del Fuego, Chile

- Master planning for sustainable development within 625,000 acres of mountains, coastal forest and wetlands
- Guidelines for natural resource extraction, management and conservation
- Ecotourism planning

MIDWAY ATOLL NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE CONCEPTUAL SITE PLAN
Papahānaumokuākea Marine National Monument, Hawaii

- Site planning for preservation and future use by NOAA and USFWS
- Research & education hub for marine habitat
- Model of adaptive stewardship
- 23 endangered marine species

KAKUM CONSERVATION AND ECOTOURISM AREA DEVELOPMENT PLAN
Ghana, West Africa

- Planning and design for Government of Ghana and Conservation International
- Establishment of new national park
- Visitor center
- World-class ecotourism
- Engine of conservation and development
- Uniquely Ghanaian

THE HIGH LONESOME RANCH CONSERVATION AND DEVELOPMENT PLAN
Debeque, Colorado

- Master land planning and GIS mapping/analysis
- 200 square mile domain
- Protection of wildlife corridors
- Research supporting wolf recovery
- Wild horse management

JONES  JONES

ARCHITECTS
LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTS
PLANNERS